

APPS & ELEARNING

We've turned our workshops and webinars into fresh, engaging eLearning content.

Mindapples Bitesize covers the core topics from our full training programme. Learners can listen to audio clips and watch videos explaining key concepts, and then answer questions on how to apply these ideas to life and work.

This is a one-stop shop for wellbeing and performance. Mindapples Bitesize equips businesses with the skills to work smarter and feel better.

ENTERPRISE OR SME?

Enterprise organisations can install Mindapples Bitesize on their corporate Learning Management System (LMS).

No LMS? No problem. We can host the content for you, or you can purchase bulk subscriptions for the Mindapples smartphone app.

The Mindapples app is free to download on iOS and Android. It contains all our eLearning content, plus you can share what works for you and browse other users' tips and ideas for healthy minds.

SUPPORT PEOPLE

HELLO. WE'RE MINDAPPLES.

We help people take better care of their minds. We share essential knowledge about how our minds work and how to manage them effectively.

KNOW YOUR MIND

In the knowledge economy, businesses depend on the minds of their staff. Learn to manage your mind, and start creating the conditions for people's minds to thrive.

Delivered in bite-size chunks for busy people, each standalone topic teaches you more about yourself and the people around you.

Plant some mindapples in your workplace today, and help us make looking after our minds as natural as brushing our teeth.

LOVE YOUR MIND

Mindapples was founded in 2008 to promote good mental health and public understanding of the mind.

Our charity provides training in mental health promotion to schools, universities and communities, and our trading arm promotes workplace wellbeing and helps people get more from their minds.
